

and ... there.

Theo. Kassing left Monday for Boulder, Colo., to join his wife and daughter, Miss Helen, for the winter.

H. A. Read returned yesterday from Washington, D. C., where he had been attending the G. A. R. encampment.

Hear Sala at the Methodist Church, Wednesday evening, October 13th. He will be assisted by Miss Meeker, soprano, and Miss Brown, pianist.

Thomas Baldwin of St. Mary was taken to Rochester last Friday where he underwent an operation for appendicitis on Saturday morning. He is recovering as rapidly as could be expected.

James Cunningham was taken suddenly ill Tuesday evening at his home on Lake avenue but his condition is now reported much improved, which will be pleasing news to his many friends.

Work has been commenced moving the John Moonan residence from its present site to his lot at the end of First street. Mr. Moonan expects to commence the construction of a new home on its site very soon.

Mrs. W. J. Mills visited Miss Alice Breen the first of the week while returning to her home in Wessington Springs, S. D., from La Crosse, Wis. Mrs. Mills was formerly Miss Leone Dunn, a teacher in Sacred Heart school here.

Will every member of the City Improvement League make a strenuous effort to be present at the meeting in the Commercial Club rooms on October 11th, and bring in returns from the sale of tickets to the Entertainment Course?

Sam. Prail of Mankato was renewing acquaintances with his Waseca friends yesterday. He is now in his 73rd year and is as strong and lively as a man of 50. His mother, who lives in Lonsville, is 92 years old.

Having closed a big deal early largest New York mills for three tl For Cash, we then placed the cloth class clothes makers and had them

These Suits an

are now placed on sale i

$10.00

15.00 to

These suits and overcoats are made with good haircloth front to stylish patterns of fine twill worsted made with shawl and velvet collars quality.

You may be long or short, slim

Guyer Cl

A daughter was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Brusch of Blooming Grove.

Mrs. J. C. Murphy went to Wells last Thursday to visit her son, Dr. Frank Murphy.

Misses Magdalene Breen and